Title IX, Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault

Title IX is a Federal civil rights law that prohibits all forms of discrimination and harassment on the basis of sex in education programs and activities for all students. Under Title IX, discrimination based on sex includes sexual harassment which may also include sexual violence such as rape, sexual assault, sexual battery and sexual coercion. Title IX also prohibits retaliation against individuals who file sexual harassment complaints or participate in an investigation regarding an alleged Title IX violation.

There are several people at USU trained to address complaints that fall under Title IX. USU’s Title IX Coordinator oversees compliance regarding all Title IX related matters, including the investigation of complaints. There are several others called Title IX Deputy Coordinators who are trained to receive initial intake and, if designated by the Title IX Coordinator, to investigate complaints. Any student, faculty, staff member or participant in any USU-sponsored activity who has concerns about sex discrimination or sexual misconduct is encouraged to seek the assistance of the Title IX Coordinator or one of the Title IX Deputy Coordinators. Contact us if you 1) have encountered sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct or sexual assault; 2) wish to understand your options if you think you may have encountered (either yourself or witnessed) sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct or sexual assault; 3) learn of a situation that you believe may warrant investigation; and/or 4) need help on how to handle a situation in which you are directly or indirectly affected.

Stacy Louck Sturgeon, Director of Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity, serves as USU’s Title IX Coordinator. She can be contacted either via telephone (435-797-1266) or email (stacy.sturgeon@usu.edu).
