Year of the Arts Jubilee

10/04/2018

Ryan Shupe and the Rubberband will perform at USU Eastern’s Geary Event Center to help celebrate the “Year of the Arts Jubilee”

To help celebrate the Utah State University Year of the Arts, USU Eastern is showcasing many campus and local talents as well as bringing in a couple of big name productions.

For a list of events please see http://usueastern.edu/yofa.

Ryan Shupe and the Rubberband

Being a 5th generation fiddler, an accomplished electric guitar, acoustic guitar and mandolin player, Shupe has been touring extensively across the US since he was 10 years old. He is no stranger to the national stage and the band has appeared on Good Morning America, E! TV, Mountain Stage, Woodsongs, GAC and CMT. They continue to tour regularly with stops at festivals, concert series, special events and prestigious venues.

Ryan Shupe and the Rubberband will perform on October 25, 2018 in the Geary Events Center. Tickets can be purchased online at https://usueastern.edu/yofa/jubilee.

Odyssey Dance Theatre's Thriller

*Update: Unfortunately Thriller is currently sold out.

If Odyssey Dance Theatre's "Thriller" isn't part of your yearly Halloween tradition, it should be. The spooky spectacular combines technical aspects of dance while paying homage to the stars of All Hallows’ Eve.

Throughout the two-hour program, “Thriller” highlights all the heroes of the season, including Frankenstein's monster and his bride, skeletons, mummies and werewolves.

Critics agree that Odyssey Dance Theatre is nothing short of spectacular.

Thriller will be performed on October 23, 2018 in the Geary Events Center.
